Regarding violation number one, the offender admitted to using marijuana and codeine at a New Year's Eve party and with respect to violation number two, the offender went to the Monmouth County Jail to visit a friend who is pending a State prison sentence. He provided the U.S. Probation Officer with his name and based on that information, he does not appear to be a co-defendant in the case or have a pending case in federal court.

It should be noted that Mr. Cureton has generally complied with the standard and special conditions of his supervised release. He is currently attending Master Driving School in Paterson to obtain his Commercial Driver's License (CDL). In addition, he reports as directed and all previous drug tests administered have been negative.
